Subject: Changes to Teachers Mortgage Assistance Program

CHFA has been notified by the State Commission on Education regarding the listing of Priority and Transitional School districts and Subject-matter Shortage areas that go into effect on July 1, 2011 for the Teachers Mortgage Assistance Program. The changes are as follows:

- Transitional School Districts and Priority School Districts are unchanged.
- Under Subject-matter Shortage areas deletions/additions:
  - Music, PK-12 (deleted)
  - School Psychologist (deleted)
  - Science, 7-12 (added)
  - Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) (added)

The CHFA website and on-line reservation system will be updated on July 1 with the revised information indicated above including the posting of the new Statement of Eligibility and the revised brochure insert. Please be sure to use the new Statement of Eligibility which will be in effect July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2012.

The Teachers Mortgage Assistance Program insert has been re-printed with the new changes. If you would like to receive a supply of the inserts, please fill out a brochure order form found under the Lender Document Library and fax it to CHFA to request a supply of new brochure inserts.

Please share this information with your respective staff members. All questions regarding this notice should be directed to Valencia Taft-Jackson at 860-571-4224 or Valencia.Taft-Jackson@chfa.org.
